Foundry Epworth League will be addressed by Judge William F. Norris tomorrow evening, at 7 o'clock. A league choir of thirty voices has been organized which, supported by an orchestra under the direction of Mr. Charles Ernst, is proving an attractive asset to the Sunday evening services and adds largely to the spirit of the meetings.

At a recent meeting of the cabinet detailed plans were outlined for an unusually interesting schedule for the winter in the way of devotional services and literary and social entertainments. Sunday evening there was introduced the first of a series of novel detailed plans were outlined for an universal of the league room. The first social diversion of the season by the young people will be in the nature of a hike to the country next Saturday evening, and the occasion is looked forward to the league and their friends are privileged to attend.
